WELCOME

At DILECTUS assisted living facility everything is adapted to meet our guests' needs and wishes, where guests can find the ideal environment that combines the comfort and privacy of their own homes with the convenience of hotel services. Located in Funchal, Madeira Island often referred to as the pearl in the Atlantic. Madeira is a real treasure which has been attracting sea traders, explorers and settlers for centuries. And now tourists are finding it every bit as appealing.

Stylishly decorated, this complex offers guests the utmost comfort, facilities and activities to ensure enjoyable stays. The complex offers 45 spacious and well-equipped bedrooms (single or double occupancy), prepared for wheelchair and disabled access. Accessibility includes appropriate wheelchair access within bathrooms, including shower access.

DILECTUS has a selected, dedicated, friendly and multidisciplinary staff team, including, of course, medical and nursing support services at your disposal 24/7, ready to provide you with all the support you may possibly need. Our dedicated staff team has been individually selected for their qualifications and their vocational skills and attitude. They are committed to the support and wellbeing of our clients, and encouraged to adapt to their individual needs, thereby offering a good quality of life for those in our care, providing a leisurely and autonomous life style in a magnificent environment.

DILECTUS is also a marvelous Residence to retire, bearing in mind Madeira Island is considered a foreign perfect destination for such purpose, because of its wonderful climate, warm and pleasant all year round, its outstanding natural and rare beauty, its abundant natural resources and its warm and welcoming people. Funchal is the capital, a modern, multicultural, relaxed and very quiet city, located in the sunniest south coast of the Island.

OUR SERVICES

DILECTUS provides several types of care services in order to meet its clients' needs:

- Residential Care and Support;
- Residential Care with Specific Nursing Care and Support;
- Respite Care;
- Convalescence Care;
- Daily Accompaniment;

Residential care and support designed for autonomous senior clients not requiring daily nursing assistance regarding their own daily needs, however who may require it occasionally.

Residential with Specific Nursing Care and Support designed for non-autonomous senior clients requiring specific nursing care and support on a regular/daily basis. A private company called Enferlar, which provides medical and nursing care at home, has its head office inside DILECTUS' premises and their qualified and highly trained nursing staff is available 24/7. Medical appointments can also be provided whenever required and/or according to medical advice, inside or outside DILECTUS' premises, including clients' own GP.

Respite Care to provide relief or respite to carers, usually family members, who need to make a break. DILECTUS assures full care support to the carers' loved ones during the time they deem necessary to rest.

Convalescence Care enabling clients to recuperate at DILECTUS rather than stay in a hospital or clinic, ensuring that clients receive the best support in a very comfortable and familiar environment.

Daily Accompaniment for those clients who wish to just spend a stay with us (meals, recreational/leisure activities and nursing assistance included).

OUR STAFF

Our dedicated staff team has been individually selected for their qualifications and their vocational skills and attitude.

They are committed to the support and wellbeing of our clients, and encouraged to adapt to their individual needs, thereby offering a good quality of life for those in our care, providing a leisurely and autonomous life style in a magnificent environment.

Meals are cooked fresh throughout the day by our fully qualified chefs, who pride themselves in the preparation of special diets and/or à la carte menus tailored, as much as possible, to our client's normal eating habits and personal tastes under medical and/or nutritionist requirements.

As we all know, an active and inclusive living should be part of every individual's daily life. Therefore, our dedicated Leisure Manager, together with our clinical team, is highly qualified to organize attractive/leisure activities tailored to all clients and according to their own will.

Above all, Managers and all members of our staff assume that dedication is at the core of everything we do.

CURIOSITY:

The owners actually live at DILECTUS, Engineer João Vasconcellos e Sá, Chairman, and his wife Cristina Frazão, Technical Manager.

WHERE WE ARE

Located in Funchal, Madeira Island often referred to as the pearl in the Atlantic. Madeira is a real treasure which has been attracting sea traders, explorers and settlers for centuries. And now tourists are finding it every bit as appealing. They're drawn by its wonderful climate, which is warm and pleasant all year round, its outstanding natural beauty, its abundant natural resources and its warm and welcoming people.

Madeira also prides itself for its regional events throughout the year, such as:

- The Carnival festivities
- The Flower Festival
- The Festival of the Atlantic
- The Madeira Wine Festival
- The New Year's Eve amongst many other regional festivities

Funchal is the capital, a modern, multicultural, relaxed and very quiet city, located in the sunniest south coast of the Island, very known for its places of interest such as the ancient cathedral, theatre, Town Hall, museums, the old town, local restaurants, cafes and esplanades, stunning gardens and its attractive waterfront.

DILECTUS is located in the city of Funchal, just 5 minutes car journey from the centre and its facilities, attractions and festivals throughout the year, 1 minute from the highway which gives quick access to our international airport and to all the cities and villages around the island and very close to the hotel main area as well as of the promenade that runs alongside this beautiful place.
